

Archives Month Event

October 19, 2017

State agency records officers were invited to the Nevada State Library, Archives and Public Records (NSLAPR) building for an informal get-together. This event allowed the records officers to meet each other, as well as the staff of NSLAPR, to ask questions and learn more about state records.

Guests also got an opportunity to see an Archives Month exhibit on the Nevada Department of Transportation Centennial in the Nevada State Archives Research Room.

The photo at right shows State Archives Manager Cynthia Laframboise giving a behind-the-scenes tour of the State Archives. The guests got up-close and personal with some very historic state records: hand-written 19th century volumes, glass plate negatives, and other items dating back as far as 1851.
